Today, we moved from Hiroshima to Tokyo. In the morning, Trainees reflected on what they learned in Hiroshima at a seminar room of JICA Hiroshima International Plaza. They confirmed how to apply their knowledge to their countries' problems for solution.

In the afternoon, we got on the Shinkansen bound for Tokyo. Unfortunately, we couldn't see Mt. Fuji because of cloudy weather. But after arriving at Tokyo, trainees were surprised at a lot of tall office towers and beautiful night views.
