

Hiroshima University Study Abroad Program (HUSA) 2015-2016
Practical Research Group Project
広島大学短期交換留学プログラム 実践研究 グループ・プロジェクト
Development of Multi-cultural Local Society
「多文化共生の地域づくり 実践研究プロジェクト」

* Time is changed for Presentation on April 7 & July 12

<Purpose of the Project>

- In HUSA 2015-2016 students will work on the Group Project titled ‘Development of Multi-cultural Local Society’ (「多文化共生の地域づくり実践研究プロジェクト」).
- Purpose: Development of the ability and skills to apply your academic knowledge of Japan to the actual communications with Japanese people in social settings. This is a project to develop multi-culturalism in Japan, and cultural diversity of HUSA program can play a valuable role in its development. Through the challenge of the project to connect yourself with local people in Japan, you are expected to enhance your practical knowledge about Japanese culture and society and leadership skills.

<Outline of the Practical Research Group Project>

- Each group (Group 1~7) will decide the project theme, plan it, and actualize the project.
New ‘Kurahashi Festival Project Group’ (Group 7) is formed now.
- Please use knowledges, skills, language abilities, etc. of the multi-national group fully. Each student has various kinds of knowledge and potentials. Cooperation of all the members in the group will make this project possible.
- The project needs to be actualized and practiced as you have planned, and final report (analysis) needs to be submitted in July 2016.
- It is required that HUSA students (multi-national group) will directly contact the local associations, groups, administration, and people by themselves and actualize the project.
- In the project local people, such as local administration, local associations, local volunteers etc., need to be involved. The location where the project takes place can be on campus or outside the university, such as local city hall, meeting place of local associations, etc.
- If students have difficulty in the process, please consult with the HUSA academic advisor.
